

News Release
U.S. General Services Administration
Mid-Atlantic Region

February 5, 2010

Contact: Gina Gilliam 215.446.4909

U.S. General Services Administration Re-Schedules February Public Meetings

Philadelphia – The State Department Foreign Affairs Security Training Center project workshops and public forum scheduled for Saturday, February 6th have been cancelled due to the predicted snow forecast. The new confirmed dates for the workshops and public forums are:

Public Forum
Queen Anne's County High School
Auditorium
Wednesday, February 10th
7:00-9:00 pm

There also will be workshops on Wednesday, February 10th held at Queen Anne's County High School from 5:00-6:30 pm for citizens who would like to come and hear details about the project and address their concerns by topic in a smaller group format. These workshops will be held in classrooms.

Public Forum
Queen Anne's County High School
Auditorium
Tuesday, February 16th
6:00-8:00pm

At the public forums on February 10th and 16th, there will be a presentation followed by an opportunity for the community to ask questions. Both public forums will begin with the same presentation followed by a question and answer session.

Please visit the website www.state.gov/recovery/fastc/ for project information.

#####

GSA provides a centralized delivery system of products and services to the federal government, leveraging its enormous buying power to get the best value for taxpayers.

- Founded in 1949, GSA manages more than 11 percent of the government's total procurement dollars and $30 billion in federal assets, including 8,600 government-owned or leased buildings and 213,000 vehicles.

News Release

U.S. General Services Administration
Mid-Atlantic Region

- GSA helps preserve our past and define our future, as a steward of more than 480 historic properties, and as manager of USA.gov, the official portal to federal government information and services.
- GSA's mission to provide superior workplaces, expert technology solutions, acquisition services, purchasing and E-Gov travel solutions and management policies, at best value, allows federal agencies to focus on their core missions.

www.gsa.gov